

Swami Vivekananda's Vision for Hazaribag, Jharkhand

In central India, near Hazaribag and such other district plenty of fertile, well watered, healthy land may even now (written in 1898) be easily available. In that region a big plot of land will have to be acquired and on it a big technical school and gradually factories etc., will have to be started. As new ways of production of food will be discovered, people will begin to settle down in that colony. Then you can mould them in any shape you like.
